Public Limited Company

Responsible Corporate Governance Report
in accordance with the Responsible Corporate Governance Recommendations of the Budapest Stock Exchange for the Annual General Meeting of the Company closing the 2023 financial

Management Board of PannErgy Plc.

This announcement is published in Hungarian and English languages. In case of any contradiction between these two versions, the Hungarian version shall prevail.

PannErgy Nyrt. (hereinafter: “the Company”) is committed to operate while observing the relevant laws, the MNB’s provisions and the stipulations of the BSE Regulations. The structure and operating conditions of the Company are set out in the Articles of Association adopted by the General Meeting. As far as responsible governance is concerned, PannErgy Plc. provides the following information.

Management Board

In lieu of a Board of Directors and a Supervisory Board, the Company has a Management Board in order to enable a consistent system of governance. The Management Board carries out the statutory functions of both the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. As part of its duties as the Board of Directors, the Management Board defines the Company’s strategic policies and supervises its operation.

The Management Board currently has five natural person members, elected by the General Meeting for an indefinite term of office. The Chair of the Management Board is elected by the Board members from among their number. The member of the Management Board serving as the Chief Executive Officer or Acting Chief Executive Officer is appointed by the Board members from among their number.

The Management Board takes decisions with a simple majority. It has a quorum if the majority of its current members are present. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the Management Board shall have the casting vote.

The Management Board shall establish its own rules of procedure, containing a detailed description of its duties and procedures falling within its competence.

The Management Board shall prepare a report to the General Meeting on the Company’s management, financial position and business policy at least once a year.

The Management Board directly governs the Company and is responsible for carrying out financial duties and implementing its resolutions and decisions. The employer’s rights over the Company’s direct employees are exercised by the Acting Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Executive Officer.

The Management Board shall comprise the following members:

Dénes Gyimóthy, Chair – independent

Gábor Briglovics, member – independent

Katalin Gyimóthy, member – independent

Attila Juhász member – independent

Kálmán Rencsár member – independent

As of 12 December 2022, the CEO duties are performed by István Jaksa.

In 2023, the Management Board met on 9 occasions, with an average participation rate of 75%, and adopted written once resolutions without a meeting.

Audit Committee

In order to ensure that the functions of the Management Board are carried out and sound decisions are made, the Company’s General Meeting has elected a three-member Audit Committee out of the independent members of the Management Board.

The Audit Committee's duties include commenting on the report prepared in accordance with the IFRS, assessing the functioning of the financial reporting system, making proposals on the appointment and remuneration of the auditor, preparing the auditor's contract and carrying out the tasks related to the cooperation with the auditor. Moreover, the Audit Committee regularly monitors whether the classification of transactions between the Company and related parties was appropriate in terms of the identification, public disclosure and regular handling of significant related transactions.

The Audit Committee lays down the rules governing its operation and decision-making. In the 2023 financial year, the members of the Audit Committee were as follows:

Attila Juhász, Chair

Gábor Briglovics, member

Kálmán Rencsár, member

In 2023, the Audit Committee met on 5 occasion, at a participation rate of 100%.

Other committees

The Company does not have a nominations committee or a remuneration committee. These functions are fulfilled by the members of the Management Board as appropriate. The Company operates with a small number of staff and with a narrow scope of activities, therefore establishing various committees and management bodies offers doubtful benefits.

Auditor

The Company's auditor is elected by the General Meeting for a term of 1 year.

The Company's auditor: BLUE RIDGE AUDIT HUNGARY Kft.

The auditor is proposed by the Audit Committee; the proposal is put forward by the presiding officer of the General Meeting that elects the auditor. In the event the candidate of the Audit Committee does not get elected by the General Meeting as the Company's auditor, the Audit Committee shall nominate another person.

The auditor is responsible for auditing the Company's books, submitting a report to the General Meeting on the audit of the reports of the Company under the Accounting Act and the proposal by the Management Board on the distribution of profit and the calculation of dividends, and exercising other rights and carrying out other duties under the law.

During the 2023 financial year, the auditor carried out no activities for the Company other than auditing and the related statutory obligations.

The Company's disclosure policy

With respect to its disclosure policy, the Company acts in accordance with the applicable legislation and stock exchange rules. The Company shall publish its notices on its own website, the website of the Budapest Stock Exchange and on a website specified by the MNB. The publication of notices on the Company's website (www.pannergy.com) shall replace all other disclosure obligations unless otherwise provided by the law and other applicable regulations.

The Company's insider trading policy

With respect to insider trading, the Company acts in accordance with the applicable legislation and stock exchange rules. It has an Insider Trading Policy regulating the relevant activities, and holds records on the permanent and ad hoc insiders.

Exercising shareholder rights, presence at the General Meeting

The Company's capital stock consists of 20,000,000 dematerialised registered ordinary shares of the nominal value of HUF20 (twenty) each, representing equal membership rights and constituting a single series of shares. At the General Meeting of the Company, each shareholder shall have one vote per ordinary share.

On behalf of the Company's Management Board, the entity authorised by the applicable law to keep the record of shareholders (currently the KELER Central Depository Ltd.) keeps a record of shareholders and shareholders' proxies.

Shareholder's rights may be exercised vis-à-vis the Company by any person whose name is registered in the record of shareholders. Shareholders' proxies may exercise shareholder's rights vis-à-vis the Company after they have been registered in the record of shareholders as a shareholder's proxy.

The rules of procedure related to shareholder verification requested in connection with the closing of the record of shareholders prior to the General Meeting are set out in the regulations of KELER Central Depository Ltd. as amended from time to time.

The Company's supreme body is the General Meeting, which consists of the entirety of shareholders.

An annual General Meeting must be held once a year, respecting the statutory time-limit. The agenda of the annual General Meeting shall by all means include the following:

- the report by the Management Board on the Company's business activities in the previous financial year;
- adopting the Company reports according to the EU-IFRS and a proposal by the Management Board on the distribution of profit and the calculation of dividends;
- determining the remuneration due to members of the Management Board and the auditor;
- adopting the responsible corporate governance report to be submitted to the Budapest Stock Exchange;
- adopting a decision on the evaluation of the work carried out by the members of the Management Board in the previous financial year and on granting the discharge they are entitled to.

An extraordinary General Meeting may be convened by the Management Board when it is considered appropriate for the operation of the Company.

An extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened by the Management Board if the previous General Meeting so decided and if it has been requested from the Management Board in writing by the auditor or shareholders representing at least 5% of all votes, the latter specifying the reasons for and the purposes of convening the General Meeting.

The invitation to the General Meeting shall be published by the Management Board in the manner specified for publishing the Company's notices in the Company's Articles of Association, at least 30 (thirty) days prior to the date of the proposed General Meeting.

Any invitations to and any notices regarding the General Meeting shall specify at least the Company's official name and registered office, the venue, date and time of the General Meeting, the agenda of the General Meeting, the conditions prescribed in the Company's Articles of Association of exercising voting rights and the rights to request information and to add items to the agenda of the General Meeting, and the venue and date of the General Meeting scheduled to be held repeatedly due to a lack of quorum.

Regarding issues not listed in the agenda published, the General Meeting shall not adopt a decision unless all shareholders are present and they unanimously consent to the decision.

Shareholders representing at least one percent (1%) of all votes may request the Management Board in writing to add an issue to the agenda of the General Meeting, specifying the reasons for such request, and may put forward a proposed resolution in connection with the items on the agenda.

Shareholders representing at least one percent of all votes may exercise such right within 8 days of the publication of the notice on convening the General Meeting. The Management Board shall add the proposal to the agenda of the General Meeting and publish such addition in the same manner as the publication of the notice on the General Meeting.

The Company shall publish important data of the report under the Accounting Act and the Management Board report, a summary of proposals related to the items on the General Meeting's agenda and the proposals for resolutions, summaries of the number of shares and voting rights as at the time the General Meeting is convened and the statement on remuneration at least 21 (twenty-one) days before the date of the General Meeting.

The General Meeting shall form a quorum if shareholders representing more than fifty percent of all voting shares are present, in person or through proxy. Such power of attorney shall be issued in the form of a public document or a private document of full probative power and submitted at the place and time specified in the invitation to the General Meeting but at any rate not later than the registration before the General Meeting. Where a shareholder so prefers, the Company shall send him a power of attorney form to the postal or e-mail address specified by the shareholder.

The power of attorney shall remain valid for a single General Meeting or for a fixed term of up to 12 (twelve) months. The power of attorney shall also be valid for the continuation of a suspended General Meeting and a General Meeting that has been repeatedly convened due to a lack of quorum.

Members of the Management Board, the manager, senior executives of the Company and the Company's auditor shall not act as proxies.

In the event the General Meeting still fails to form a quorum 30 (thirty) minutes after the starting time of the General Meeting, the repeated General Meeting shall be convened, with the same agenda, for a time within 15 (fifteen) days of the date of the original General Meeting, with the proviso that the repeated General Meeting shall be convened for a day at least 10 (ten) days later than the day on which it is convened. A General Meeting repeated due to a lack of quorum shall form a quorum with regard to the issues on the agenda of the original General Meeting regardless of the number of persons attending.

At the General Meeting, a person may exercise his or her rights of membership if such person has been registered in the Company's Record of Shareholders on the basis of the shareholder verification initiated in connection with the closing of the record of shareholders prior to the General Meeting.

The date of shareholder verification shall be the 5th (fifth) stock exchange business day prior to the General Meeting unless KELER has specified a different date in its regulations as amended from time to time. Any sale of shares that takes place following the date of shareholder verification prior to the General Meeting shall be without prejudice to membership rights that may be exercised at the General Meeting in question.

On the basis of the records in the record of shareholders, the Management Board shall enable shareholders or shareholder proxies to properly exercise their voting rights by each share at the venue of the General Meeting after they have identified themselves and signed the attendance list.

Shareholders shall not exercise their voting rights unless they have paid up to the Company their contributions that have become due and payable.

Voting at the General Meeting shall be held primarily by voting papers and the manual counting of votes. In that case, the General Meeting shall elect a returning board at the proposal of the Chair of the General Meeting. The returning board shall have 3 (three) members. The returning board shall submit a written report on the result of the vote; the Chair of the General Meeting shall set forth the result and attach the report to the minutes of the General Meeting.

The presiding chair of the General Meeting shall be the Chair of the Management Board. If the Chair of the Management Board is prevented, the presiding chair of the General Meeting shall be elected by the General Meeting by simple majority on the Management Board's proposal, out of the persons present.

The Chair of the General Meeting shall open the General Meeting, determine if it forms a quorum, appoint the recorder, guide the discussion, give leave to speak and cut off speakers, order a break, draft the proposals for resolutions, order the vote and set forth its result, announce the resolutions of the General Meeting, arrange for the drafting of the minutes of the General Meeting and the attendance list and adjourn the General Meeting.

Minutes of the General Meeting shall be kept as provided for by the Civil Code.

Internal control systems

The Company has drawn up an Internal Rules of Procedure on transactions with affiliated parties to ensure the transparency of the transactions with such parties, determine the rules regarding transactions with affiliated parties to prevent them from securing advantages due to their position and appropriately safeguard the interests of PannErgy Nyrt. and non-affiliated party shareholders, including minority shareholders.

Remuneration policy

A new law entered into force on 17 July 2019 transposing the European Union's Shareholder Rights Directive II (SRD II) and facilitating the encouragement of long-term shareholder engagement over short-term risk-taking and improving transparency between public companies limited by shares and investors. Based on the stipulations of the Act LXVII of 2019 on the Encouragement of Long-term Shareholder Engagement and the Amendment of Certain Acts with the Purpose of Legal Harmonisation, the Company has prepared a detailed Remuneration Policy. According to Section 3:268(2) of the Civil Code, acting in the capacity of the General Meeting in accordance with Section 9(2) of Government Decree 102/2020 (IV.10.) on derogating provisions governing the operation of partnerships and joint-stock companies during the state of danger, the Management Board has adopted the proposed Remuneration Policy and has published it on the Company's website.

PannErgy Nyrt's Remuneration Policy is effective as of 30 April 2020.

The Management Board made the Company's Remuneration Reports for the years 2020-2022 available on the Company's website for a period of at least ten years, following a supportive vote of the general meeting expressing its opinion.
