MOL's position regarding its investment in INA

MOL hereby informs the capital market participants about its position regarding its investment in INA.

The Company's Board of Directors authorized the Executive Board to conclude such an agreement with the Croatian Government that can lead to value creation through the execution of INA's growth strategy. However, the Executive Board is also authorized to start the preparations for the sale of MOL's stake in INA in order to be able to maximize the value of its investment.
