

Tünde Konczné Kondás

She graduated from the Budapest University of Economics in 1988 with a degree in Master of Business Administration. Other qualifications: Chartered Accountant, Economist in Management and Controller.

She established her professional career in the natural gas supplier sector: Zemplén- Abaúj Gázszolgáltató Rt., Tigáz 2 Kft. and then Tigáz-DSO Kft. She worked as accounting officer, later as chief financial officer, and then as head of economics and controlling.

Her main tasks included full financial management of the organisation, from business planning to the operation of the corporate governance system. It is also required to operate a controlling system with transparent reports related to the cost review and to analyse the justified assets and amortisation costs necessary for the operation of the licensee.

Since 2017, she has been the director of management and controlling of Talentis Consulting Zrt., the group management company of the Mészáros Group.

Since 2018 she has been member of the Board of Directors of TIGÁZ Zrt. Wamsler SE , also a board member of Wamsler SE Európai Részvénytársaság. She is the CEO of Talentis Group Zrt. and member of the supervisory board of the Magyar Sportmárka Zrt.