Comment: All these preliminary numbers point out that AutoWallis should deliver an earnings surprise for 2021. We were expecting EBITDA of HUF 6.6 bln on sales revenue of about HUF 192 bln, whilst preliminary sales figures suggest revenue of HUF 207 bln (+134% YoY) and EBITDA of about HUF 6.95 bln (+216% YoY), other things held constant, implying an EBITDA margin of 3.4% compared to 2.5% YoY. Believing that AutoWallis continues to improve its profitability and cash position with strong results going forward, we would tend to revise our 12-month TP upward from our current TP of HUF 171 to HUF 182, leaving a 47% upside potential from the current share price. AutoWallis is now trading at EV/EBITDA and P/E multiples, based on our new 2022 earnings estimates, of 11.8x and 6.7x, respectively, that we think is compelling. We reiterate our BUY rating on the stock.
