

ZOLTÁN PÉTER NÉMETH

CEO of Wamsler SE Household Equipment European Company.

Zoltán Péter Németh graduated in mechanical engineering from the Budapest University of Technology and Economics.

Since February 2020, Zoltán Péter Németh has been CEO of Wamsler SE and Managing Director of the two German subsidiaries Wamsler Haus und Küchentechnik GmbH and Bioenergy GmbH. He has established his professional career in international manufacturing companies. During his management career he spent 9 years in various middle management positions and 15 years in senior management positions. During his time in multinational companies, he has been involved in or managed several factory and production relocations and related brownfield and greenfield investments. His experience in the manufacturing industry ranges from custom machinery to mass production.