The operation of the 4iG Group is structured in such a way that the existing support functions of all Member Companies belonging to the 4iG Group, including the New Entity, will be partially or fully centralised at the Plc, so that in order to tighten the control of cost management and to increase the efficiency of operational management, these functions, services and activities will be partially or fully centralised at the Plc for the Member Companies.

The centralised functions are as follows (with a detailed description of each activity as described in this section of this document):

2. Corporate governance;
3. Security;

10. HR;

The centralised, group-level management of the support functions performs this management function for the Member Companies, primarily through the development of central guidelines and methodologies, by the definition and provision of tools to support management, by medium-term and annual planning, and by the operation of control functions.

The following sharing principle applies to two priority applications:

The area remaining in the Plc. will continue to use the DoQ (document management and filing system) and/or AXAPTA (financial ERP system) after the spin-off, which will be transferred to the Spin-off Company upon the spin-off, provided that

- the support and management of the DoQ and AXAPTA systems is achieved by the Spin-off Company and by the allocation of rights to dedicated staff members for the tenants of its subsidiaries.

- The designation of authorised staff and their responsibilities in the relevant business entity is defined in the relevant policy process description, including responsibilities.
- The operation, maintenance, development and master data management of the DoQ and AXAPTA applications are the responsibility of the Spin-off Company. The content, details and settlement process for this service to the Operator shall be agreed between the Spin-off Company and the Plc.

Employee-owned personal computers/laptops/tablets and small peripherals (e.g. mouse, charger) are transferred to the Spin-off Company on a sharing basis (based on the place of employment, and in case of shared employment the higher number of hours is decisive) or remain in the Plc.

High value peripherals that are part of the office equipment are distributed according to the place where they are used (monitor, keyboard, docking station).

4.3. The principle of dividing all other office equipment:

Conference equipment, conference peripherals, cables, extension cords, etc. remain in 4iG Plc. and are part of the central service. Network printers are rented individually according to their place of use, i.e. printers used by the IT/SI business are rented by the IT/SI business, while those used by the Plc. are rented by the Plc.

4.4. Licenses

The licenses necessary to carry out the activities of the IT/SI Business Unit, which are not used by the Demerging Company after the Spin-off, will be transferred to the IT/SI Business Unit.

The licenses necessary for the performance of the activities of the Demerging Company, which are not used by the IT/SI business unit for the performance of its activities after the spin-off, will remain with the Demerging Company.

For those licenses that are used by both the Demerging Company and the IT/SI business after the spin-off, an agreement will be made regarding the use and any fees (service-related) that may be incurred. The contractual terms and conditions set by the licensor will determine the way in which each of the licensing member companies will contract for use.

The sharing principles also apply to own property or leased assets/services. In the latter case, rental contracts are classified according to the principles.

5. Trademarks, know-how, patents, copyrights, industrial property rights

6. Other immovable and movable property (fixtures and fittings forming part of immovable property)

The real estate necessary for the activities of the Spin-off Company and its subsidiaries is provided by the Plc. The ownership/lease contract is accounted to the Spin-off Company. The real estate necessary for the performance of business activities of the subsidiaries is also provided by the Plc. Exceptions to this are the existing leases concluded by the IT/SI subsidiaries in the period prior to the spin-off, such as the existing leases of PoliComputer Kft., ACE Network Zrt. and Innobyte Zrt. The ownership/lease contract is settled between 4iG Plc and the subsidiary.

The costs of renovations, extensions and other works on the real estate provided by the Plc. are borne by the Plc., which is accounted for by the Spin-off Company and its subsidiaries.

The Plc. ensures the purchase, maintenance/operation of the equipment and utility items (kitchen equipment, office furniture, etc.) of the real estate provided by it and their replacement if necessary. The costs of this are reflected in the accounts between the Plc. and the Spin-off Company and its subsidiaries.

The following items are not part of the IT/SI business and will not be transferred to the Demerging Company by spin-off:

For all categories of vehicles, the Spin-off Company will have its own framework rental agreement with the partner providing fleet services (hereinafter referred to as "Fleet Manager"). The rent of motor vehicles allocated to the Spin-off Company and all related costs (cost of fuel, motorway charge, service fee, etc.) are paid by the Spin-off Company directly to the Fleet Manager or other service partner on the basis of an invoice issued to the Spin-off Company on its behalf, while the other costs of providing the service (e.g. servicing, insurance, petrol card management, etc.) are charged to the Spin-off Company in the management fee. This is provided by the Demerging Company to the Spin-off Company, the details of which are set out in the intercompany agreement referred to in point 3.2 of this document.

Framework contracts with fleet management companies will be jointly taken over by succession and the leasing contracts for individual vehicles will be reclassified together with the staff to the Spin-off Company. Vehicles that are assigned to a Spin-off Company department and not clearly assigned to personnel use (e.g. SSC) will also be transferred to the Spin-off Company with their individual contracts.

8. Warehouse stocks

Stocks are managed in the following areas according to the principles listed:

- Group Purchasing.

- All stock related to commercial and business activities are transferred to the Spin-off Company.
- The inventory of all personally identifiable IT assets is transferred to the Spin-off Company.
- The stock of all other non-personal IT equipment (office equipment) is transferred to the Spin-off Company. Exceptions to this rule are manufacturer licenses (e.g. SAP, DELL TLA licenses) managed and purchased by Group IT.
- The stock of handsets necessary for the operation of the mobile fleet remains with the Demerging Company.

9. Technology identifiers

IP addresses: in the legal sense, IP addresses do not change during disconnection. The current IP address ranges will remain the property of the Plc.

Domains:

- Domains that can be associated with Commercial Activities, including domains created in the context of projects, will be transferred to the Spin-off Company, as detailed in a separate annex to the Demerger Agreement.
- The use of the domain 4ig.hu is allowed by the Demerging Company to the Spin-off Company even after the demerger until this permission is revoked.

10. Litigation and administrative procedures:

There are no litigation or official procedures (Consumer Protection, Conciliation Board, NAIH, Tax Authority, Labour, Competition Office) pending, so they are not transferred.

If litigation is initiated before the date of the demerger, they will be classified according to the principle of asset sharing, i.e. those related to commercial transactions will belong to the IT/SI business unit, and those related to the central support area will belong to the Plc. For litigation relating or involving employees, the classification of the particular employee will determine to whom the litigation belongs.

1. Annex 1 - Financial explanation of the principle of asset allocation for audit purposes

1. Main principles for preparing the asset inventory

1.1. Invested assets

- IT tools as per Section 4

- Open trade receivables and other receivables tax-related items remain in the Plc. (due to the handling of cases on account of the unchanged tax number);

- Cash on hand remain with the Spin-off Company (where the petty cash fund is operated);
- Cash in bank accounts: will remain with the Plc. (existing bank accounts are in the name of the Demerging Company).

The principle for the separation of accruals is that if accruals are based on an existing Statement of Performance or invoice, the separation of activity recorded in this document determines the company which will own the accrual.

1.4. Liabilities and accruals and deferred income

- Open stock of deliveries and other tax-related items are transferred to the Plc. (due to the handling of cases on account of the unchanged tax number)

- Other employee-related liabilities are included in the assets of each company according to the classification of employees

- The classification of third-party liabilities is based on the contracting area of responsibility
- All outstanding bank loans/loans, bonds remain in the Demerging Company

The principle for the segregation of accruals and deferred income is that if the accrual is based on an existing Statement of Performance or invoice, the segregation of activity recorded in this document determines the location of the accrual, and in the case of performance-based accruals the item is placed in the IT/SI business.
